

Scavenger Hunt

This scavenger hunt invites you to begin an acquaintance with the library at WCU. Submit a list of your responses to these questions to D2L's dropbox as your first graded assignment.

for help in citation, consider Purdue's OWL: <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/section/2/> you'll find guides for MLA and APA at the site above

1. Can one reserve a group study room? Ask a librarian, find a room, and write the room and time here.
2. Where in the library is the Learning Assistance Resource Center? What hours do they keep this term? What rooms in the library are devoted to the Learning Assistance Resource Center?
3. Find an issue of the periodical Ethics between 2007 and 2010. Identify an article in that journal using proper APA or MLA format. Notice that the last few pages of each issue are devoted to advertisements. Describe one.
4. Which floors of the library are quiet floors?
5. Where is the Holocaust Collection? Identify (APA or MLA) one item in this collection.
6. Find the biggest item you can manage from the Folio Collection. Open it up and leaf through it. Identify it here.
7. Ask a reference librarian to direct you to a printed reference collection resource in your field and identify that item here.
8. What are the displays currently under exhibit by Special Collections? List each display and describe it.
9. Where is the Freedom Shrine? Describe one item in this collection.
10. Check a book out from your subject area. Identify the book here. What day is it due?
11. Where is the Frederick Douglass Institute? What are its hours this term?
12. Where is the Children's Literature Collection?
13. Can one borrow a film from the library? If so, borrow one, list it here and identify the due date.
14. Is it possible to Skype from any of the computer terminals in the library?
15. What are the printing facilities available to students in the library, and what policies govern their use?
